

WORK IT

GET YOUR HOME OFFICE IN ORDER WITH THESE EXPERT TIPS

NEW HOME

CHANGE IT UP
'A change can bring inspiration and a fresh energy to your work life,' says Amy Revell from Simply Organised. If you have the space in your home, try moving your office to face a window or to a space with lots of natural light to spark creativity.

MAKE IT INVITING
If you create a space you actually want to be in, you'll be less likely to procrastinate with those boring jobs. Use colour, prints and indoor plants to make the space as welcoming as possible.

Otto Bamboo natural collection, from $10.95 each, officeworks.com.au.

NO MORE PAPER PILING

Feeling overwhelmed by the stacks of papers covering your desk? Creating order will help you work more efficiently. 'Try using vertical files and shelves in your office so you can find papers you need quickly and easily,' recommends Amy.

Scandi Tiered Desk, $59, kmart.com.au.

Typo Shaped Wire Organiser Aqua Blue Heart, $29.99, cottonon.com.au.

LESS IS MORE
Try to limit the items on your desk to a bare minimum, says Fantastic Cleaners home improvement expert Marieta Ivanova. Ask yourself what the items you use every day are and chuck out the rest. 'All items that don't make it to the list just take up valuable space,' says Marieta.

SKÅDIS Pegboard in White, $20, ikea.com.au.

WANT TO GO PAPERLESS?

The Rocketbook is a notebook for the digital age, with pages that feel just like paper but can be wiped clean and used over and over. Simply scan the pages with your smartphone and send them to your preferred cloud service. Everlast, $55, getrocketbook.com.au.

